

PREPARATIONS UNDER WAY TO MOVE TROOPS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
COLUMBUS, N. M., May 25.—Preparations are under way to transfer the American troops stationed at Boca Grande and Esplanada to Palomas and Ojo Frederico, according to reports here tonight. Boca Grande and Esplanada are a few miles below the American border on the old motor trail from Columbus to the Mexican front. With the abandonment several weeks ago of the old route, which crossed into Mexico fifteen miles west of Columbus, and the adoption of a new road leading directly south from here through Palomas and Ojo Frederico, the two points were isolated. The contemplated movements, according to military men, is minor, and is to be made merely to establish more complete protection for General Pershing's line of communication.

Military authorities here held the opinion tonight that any conference which General Gaviarra, commander of the border zone, may arrange with General Pershing will not affect the reduction of American troops in Mexico now under way.

Becomes Militia Major

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 25.—Captain John D. Long, of the Third United States Cavalry, has been placed in command of the squadron of Texas cavalry now encamped here, with rank of major. Captain Long is the first of the regular army to be given permission by the war department to accept a commission in the militia.

TO FURTHER CANDIDACY

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
VIENNA (Via Berlin to London), May 25.—Commenting on President Wilson's Charlotte speech, the Neue Freie Presse declares today that the step he desires to take is of great significance for the dissemination of the peace idea in the world. The newspaper says, however, that it is convinced, first, that the president is primarily seizing an idea grown popular in America, suddenly, to further his candidacy for re-election; and, second, that he has not offered the good offices of the United States without knowing pretty conclusively that his step would not be unwelcome to England.

MINER'S WAGES INCREASED

DENVER, May 25.—Increases in wages, generally on a profit-sharing plan, affecting approximately 5,000 metal miners of Colorado is to be made by leading operators, it was announced today. The change is to become effective June 1.

CHILD CRUSHED TO DEATH

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
TAYLORVILLE, Utah, May 25.—Verna Snyder was crushed to death late Wednesday by a heavy farm leveler which her father, Rudolph Snyder, was driving. The child insisted on riding and in attempting to climb to the seat, fell under the implement and was terribly mangled.

MONSIGNOR DUNN ATTACKS TRUST IN CONTROL OF N. Y. CHARITIES

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NEW YORK, May 25.—Roman Catholic clergymen whose telephones were tapped during the investigation of charitable institutions took the witness stand today before the legislative committee, headed by State Senator George F. Thompson, and flatly denied the charges of Mayor Mitchell that they were involved in conspiracy to discredit the city administration through attack upon the department of charities.

They made the counter allegation that the mayor played a prominent part in a conspiracy designed to discredit the administration of Catholic orphanages. The priests asserted that after discovering their telephone had been tapped they deliberately planned to trip the mayor by prearranged conversations and that they were successful in their purpose. While admitting certain parts of the overheard conversations which were read to the committee yesterday by Mr. Mitchell the witness protested that this account of these talks was, in the main, inaccurate. They contended that the language used was not theirs.

Whatever was said in conversations about spiriting witnesses out of the city to prevent them from appearing before the charities investigating committee was deliberately planned to discredit the mayor and his associates, with the end in view of proving that their telephone had been tapped, they declared. The clergymen contended that all they sought for the institutions in which they were interested was a square deal which had not been given them.

In reply to a question early in the examination Monsignor Dunn arraigned what he called "the Charity trust." "Its one and only aim," he declared, "is the secularization of all institutions."

The witness declared the charities institutions had a plan to "farm out" to 22,000 families the 22,000 children who were in institutions in this city. "We want religious influence surrounding our children," Monsignor Dunn said, "and the Catholic church never will permit its children to be taken away from it."

WOMEN'S CONFAB OFFICIALLY OPEN SPEECHES TODAY

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NEW YORK, May 25.—In her annual address tomorrow before the thirteenth biennial convention of the general federation of women's clubs, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, the president, will urge the women of the United States to take the first step in a struggle for internationalism, by calling a great congress of the women of the America for 1920. She will recommend, she said tonight that "under the auspices of the United States government be asked to help finance such a congress."

The co-ordination of the efforts of the women of North and South America in behalf of world peace, Mrs. Pennybacker believes will go far toward accomplishing that end. In line with this idea, Mrs. Pennybacker at today's session approved the report of the executive committee recommending the affiliation of the federation with the National council of women.

Because of the imperfect acoustics of the Seventh regiment armory, auditorium, the business session of the convention will be held in Carnegie hall. During the day new sounding boards will be installed in the armory and if they are found effective the sessions will be resumed there. Otherwise, its use will be discontinued. And perhaps two other large halls will be engaged in order to accommodate the delegates alternates and visitors.

It was officially announced tonight that Illinois has the largest delegation, while New York is second. Ohio is third. These states it is predicted will determine the election.

Mrs. Josiah E. Cowles of Los Angeles, Mrs. Sneath's most formidable opponent for the presidency is claimed by her campaign managers, has the united support of the western and northwest states. Illinois, Mrs. Cowles supporters declare will throw its vote to their candidate because of dissensions alleged to be due to the presidential ambition of two Chicago women.

The contest between Mrs. Sneath, who is first vice president and a director of a large trust company in New Orleans, and Mrs. Cowles, is being waged with vigor.

At this afternoon's business session speeches regarding the advice of the woman's club movement in England, Canada, Japan and the West Indies were delivered by Mrs. Ella M. Diehl, zelymer of London. Mrs. E. M. Renouf, Mrs. H. Weyett and Mrs. Clark Murray, all of Montreal, Miss Kaway of Tokyo, and Mrs. Fannie Worthington, Isle of Pines, Countess Okuma, Tokyo Japan, an honorary member was introduced. A press conference there was a long discussion of the desirability of a press department after speeches on newspapers and publication had been made.

The servant problem was discussed at the conference but no practical solution of the problem was offered. There were scores of dinners and receptions tonight. Mrs. Pennybacker was the guest of honor at a dinner given by the Texas delegation. She was presented with a diamond ring valued at $1,000. Among those present were Mrs. Thos. A. Edison, Mrs. William J. Bryan, Mrs. Sneath and Mrs. Cowles.

National Guard responded to the call to go to the border. The shortage of men in the New Mexico regiment was due not to the failure of members to respond but to the fact that the units had fallen below peace strength."

Mr. Redmond was quickly followed by his political arch enemy, Sir Edward Carson, who tendered his support to the proposition, and by the independent Irish leader, William O'Brien, who did likewise. The speeches effectively obliterated party lines for the moment, and those members who had come prepared to attack the government fell in with the leaders and the question was dropped.

David Lloyd George, stopping temporarily from the ministry of munitions to a sort of round table conference to settle the Irish difficulty, is a striking illustration of how at all the great crises and emergencies during the war this statesman has come to the front as a strong man and saviour of the country. In the early days of the war he gained an enviable reputation in the eyes of the men of all parties for his capable handling of the nation's finances, and then came to the rescue in the military emergency as head of the ministry of munitions to provide the army with shells.

Lately it was undoubtedly his forceful personality which converted the country in the face of the strongest opposition to universal military service. Now he steps into the breach to solve one of the most difficult political problems ever presented to their statesmen—to reconcile the apparently irreconcilable sections of the Irish people and establish home rule in Ireland. How Mr. Lloyd George will be able to arrange a formal conference, exactly what shape the conference will take, is still unknown.

He has been engaged for some days in informal talks preparatory to such a conference, and it is understood that besides John Redmond, the Irish nationalist leader, the conference will include Herbert Samuel, the home secretary, who had much to do with framing the finance clauses of the

Cottolene

"The Natural Shortening"

Make your next shortcake this way

Into two cups of sifted pastry flour sift and mix one level teaspoon of salt and four level teaspoons baking powder; chop in two level teaspoons chilled Cottolene, and add one egg. Wet to a stiff dough with about three-fourths cup of milk, or half water and half milk. Toss out on floured board, roll one-half inch thick, cut into rounds, and bake in hot oven.

When baked, pull the biscuits apart and spread with butter. Put mashed and sweetened berries or other fruit between crusts and over the whole.

Cottolene will improve the delicious quality of your shortcake, just as it improves the flavor, appearance and wholesomeness of all other kinds of foods that are shortened or fried in it.

Use Cottolene for all shortening, and for frying doughnuts, croquettes, chicken, fish, etc.

Cottolene is put up in pails of different sizes, to suit your convenience. Its use is simple, and always gratifying. Ask your grocer for a regular supply. Do it today.

A copy of our real cook book, "HOME HELPS," will be mailed to you free, if you will write our General Offices, Chicago.
